a la Brooks and Hillier.

W<sup>H</sup>ercas the late Ministry insisted upon very hard Terms, and over-rated their Peace: This is to advertise the Publick, that there is lately imported from France, by Messieurs Mes- nager and P--r, a very neat, cheap and fine Peace, truly French, which will be dispos'd of at the following Places, (viz.)
At the great House at the End of York- Buildings; at Mr. St. J--'s Office; at Mr.
P---r's Lodgings in Westminster; at Mr.
A---M---'s House in Southampton-Square; and for the Benefit of those that dwell in the City, at Mr. Bl---t's House in Bir- chin Lane, and at S. Sh---rd's in Bishopsgate Street, if he shall continue there ten days longer.

N. B. That for the Satisfaction of Persons of Quality, Mr. P--r will draw himself, and Mr. M---r will wait in his proper Person.
